

About HiTechFlow, LLC.

Welcome to HiTechFlow.com, the exclusive online distributor for Hoffer Flow Controls, Inc. products.

HiTechFlow has been established to promote and sell Hoffer Flow Control products online through our web site. Our mission is to provide the most convenient and efficient process for ordering Hoffer flow meters. Our online flow meter configurator allows customers to choose from a wide range of products to create a solution for their specific applications. HiTechFlow allows customers to save time and money by directly ordering Hoffer Flow Controls products.

We strive to offer you the best possible customer experience while helping to solve your flow metering problems.

All products offered on our web site are supported by Hoffer's standard warranty and service. Hoffer is the only flow meter manufacturer offering a 5 year warranty on selected meters. Hoffer has been manufacturing flow meters for over 40 years and continues to service and support all its products, whenever possible. For more information visit www.hofferflow.com.
